I know I am not alone in the struggle to find meaning in life.

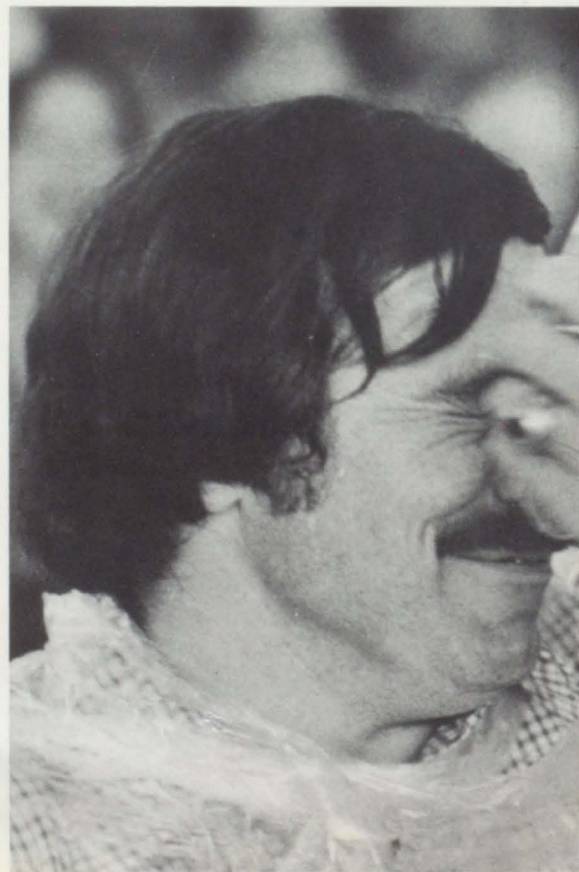

I know I am not alone in the dislike to be of value, to make a difference to others.
I know I am not alone in the dislike to love and be loved. It is the universal condition.

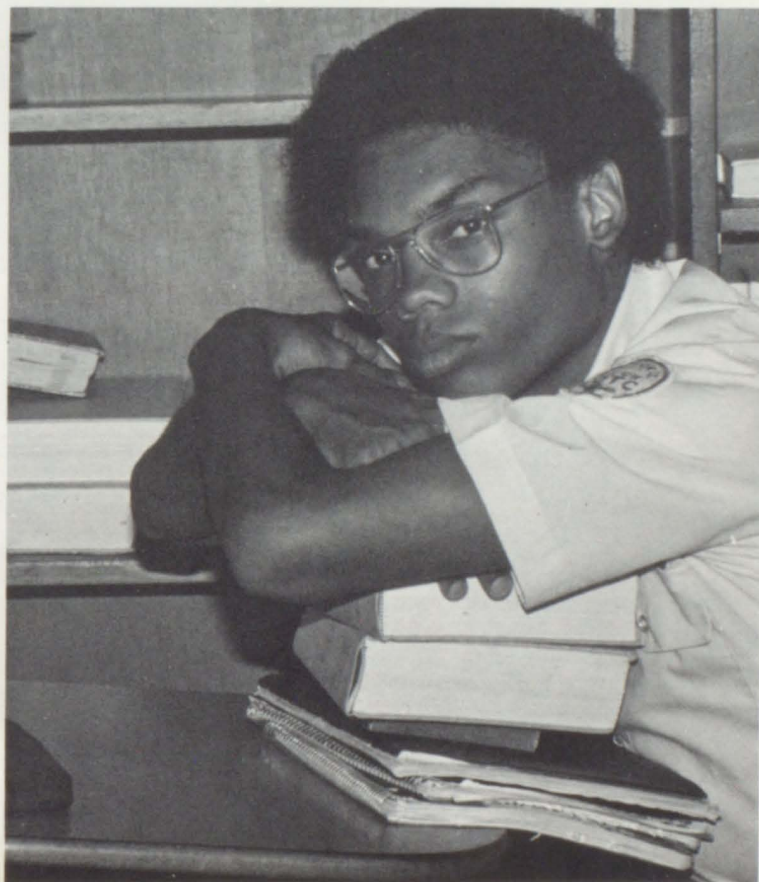

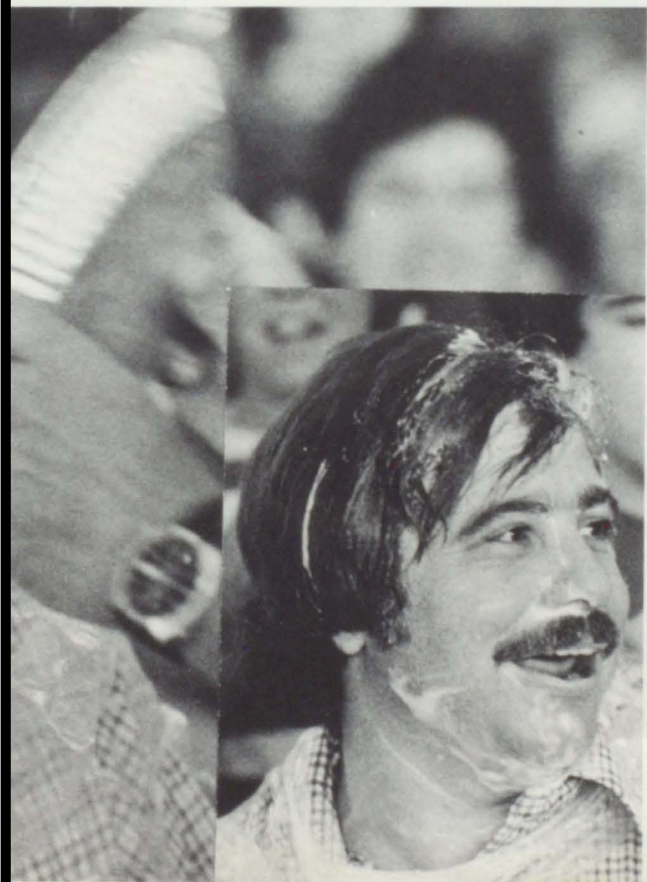

Some people think their value, their uniqueness, lies in what they do, what they accomplish. I have found the essence of people is most present in their being.

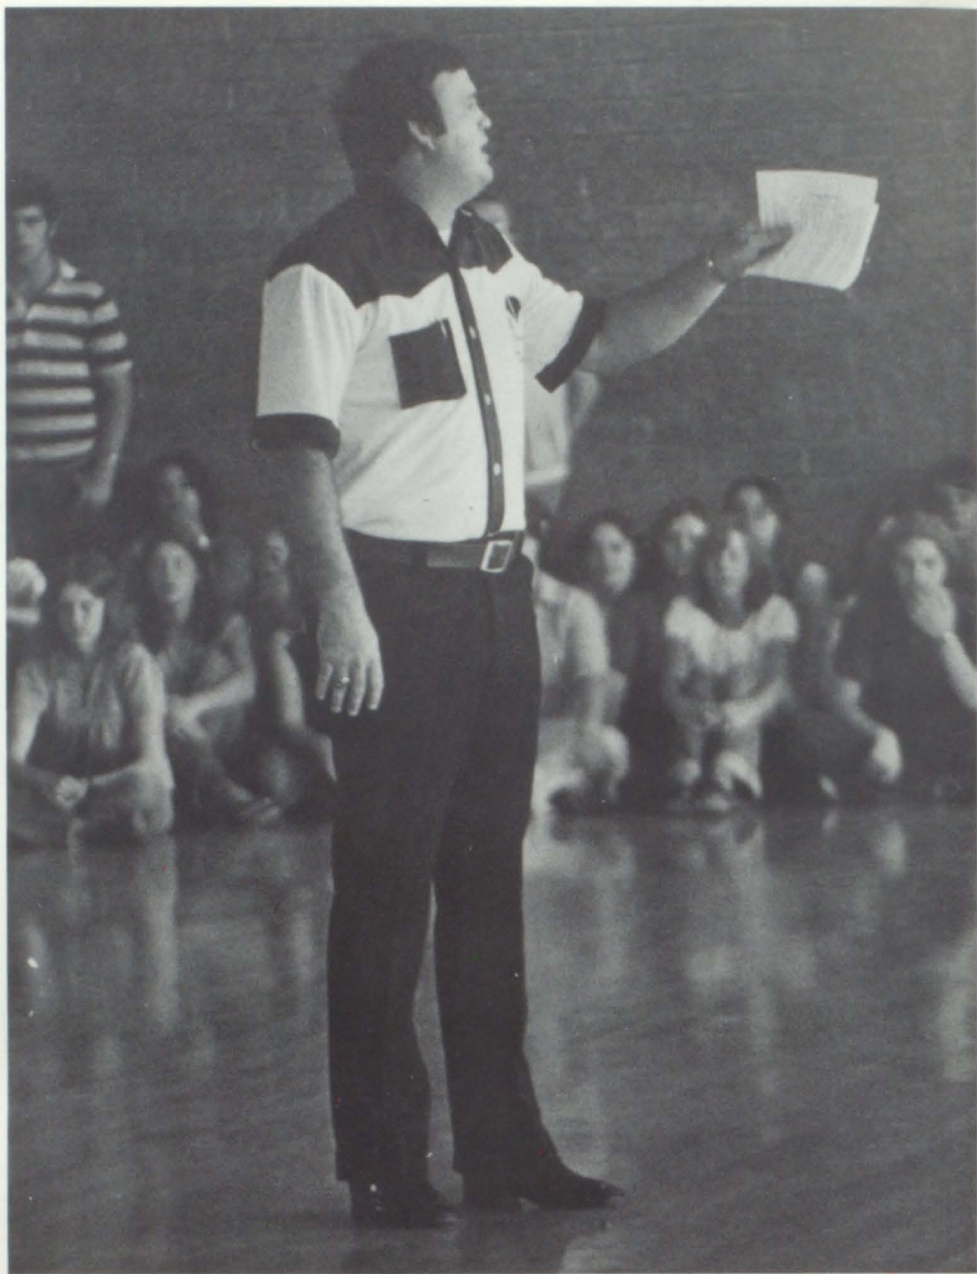

A day truly began when a person is affirmed. I don't have to be aloof with others, and they don't have to be so humble they deny the given of the honest gift. It was beautiful to have someone accept my gratitude as intended.

It's in sharing concerns and dreams and lives that I become whole. I must remember to look within myself to know the face I show to others. I want to recognize my own reflection when I see it.

I can't afford the luxury of uncontrolled emotion. In general, people have treated me well, but I didn't accept their reflections. I was convinced they wouldn't like me if they really knew me.

I wasted much of life blaming others for my reactions. Yet all the while, I held the potential for positive self-direction. Changing or accepting my condition is my responsibility. What gets my attention gets me!

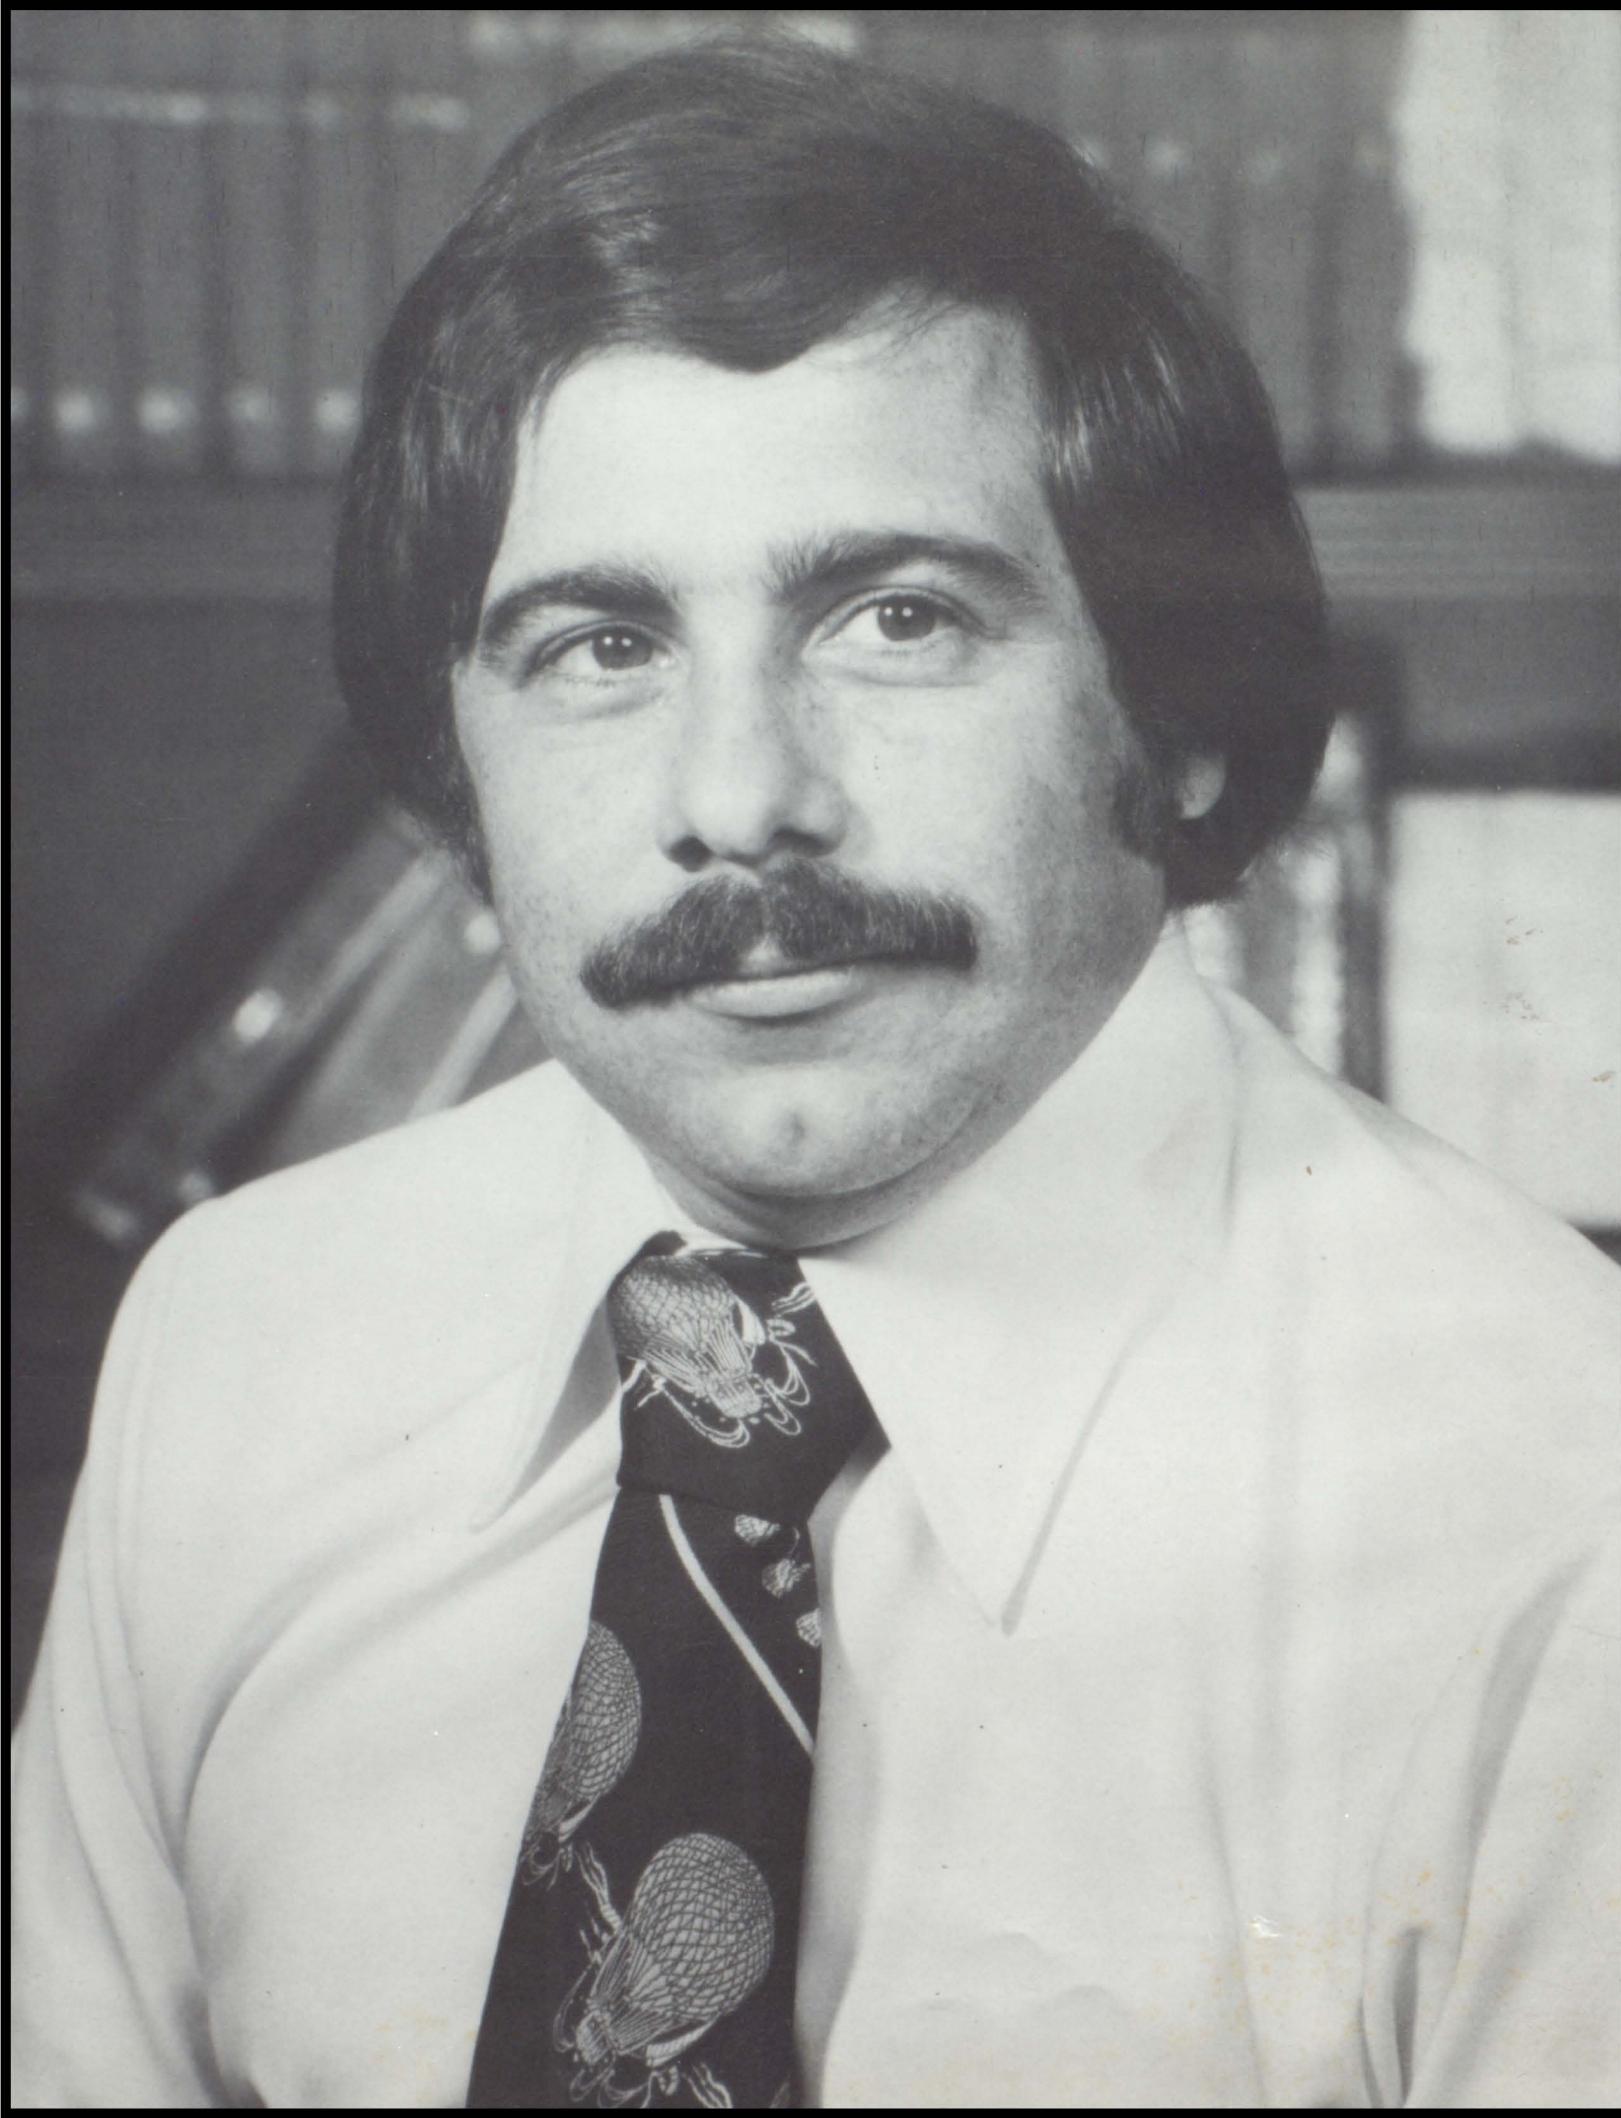

Anticipation!

We thought by now they had learned to eat . . .

Jim Barr, President

The past three years at WRHS have been outstanding for the Class of '78. Our class has continuously shown that it is very spirited, probably the most spirited ever to go through the school. We can hold our heads high as we move into the next stage of our lives.

Dreama Jenkins, Vice-President

As I look to the future, I am torn between the feelings of sadness and anticipation. The end of our high school "career" is a milestone in our lives and our senior year is one which will always possess a special place in our memories. The Friends which we have now will remain with us forever. As we go our separate ways, I would like to wish all of you the best that God has to give because I love each and every one of you.

Jimmy Katsekis, Treasurer

"Tis easy enough to be pleasant, when life flows along like a song; But the man worthwhile is the one who will smile When everything goes wrong." Ella Wheeler Wilcox: WORTH WHILE

Joe Horton, Secretary

Well as I look to the past, I remember how I wanted to get out of this place and now as the end nears. It seems almost impossible to go. But as we leave; I do want to thank all the people of Warner Robins High and May God Bless You All

Once again the Robins' Demons have proven to be too much for their crosstown rivals. In a game that provided an outlet for pent-up hostilities, the Demons emerged a 27-0 victor. It was a fitting way to end the regular season.

I believe in the future which I am planning for myself in the field of distribution, and in the opportunities which my vocation offers.

I believe in fulfilling the highest measure of service to my vocation, my fellow beings, my country and my God-that by doing so, I will be rewarded with personal satisfaction and material wealth.

I believe in the democratic philosophies of private enterprise and competition, and in the freedoms of this nation-that these philosophies allow for the fullest development of my individual abilities.

I believe that by doing my best to live according to these high principles, I will be of greater service both to myself and to mankind.

Bessie Brown - Editor

I would like to leave a word of advice to the seniors who are leaving WRHS and the entire student body. YOU SHOULD STRIVE FOR THE BETTERMENT OF YOURSELF, not because teachers are instructing you to do so, but because you will be on your own in this world one day. I've had so many moments of happiness and some of despair. There was someone there to lift my spirits when I really needed it. Get involved, make friends and do more for yourself and others to make your high school days and life as wonderful as mine were. Finally when you cross that avenue of sorrows, someone will be there to make that tear turn into warmth and understanding.

Elizabeth - Editor

I have considered it an honor and privilege to be chosen as co-editor for the 1978 Pioneer. No one realizes how much hard work and thought goes into the yearbook. It is a task that requires the cooperation of all the Pioneer Staff, teachers, and students. I would like to offer a special thanks to Mr. Smith whose cooperation and assistance allowed us to meet all our Requirements and deadlines. I would also like to thank Bessie for all the support and help she has given each of us. Most of all, I thank Mr. Cruthirds, whose "Fatherly Advice" and patience with our phone calls on weekends and late at night pulled us through this year.

The 1978 Pioneer is complete. The worries and anxiety are past. The future will provide us with many hours of pleasure and memories as we look at the pages of the past.

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank the Pioneer staff for all their hard work to meet every deadline. We, the Pioneer Staff would like to thank Mr. Joseph E. Smith, Principal Warner Robins High School, for his understanding and cooperation with us. I want to extend a very special thanks to Olson's and also Mr. Cruthirds for his guidance, support, and heart attacks. We love you, Co-Editors, Bessie Brown, Liz Willequer

I am at peace because I can love where I used to judge.

It takes time to know another person. To negatively judge a multifaceted human is to diminish myself.

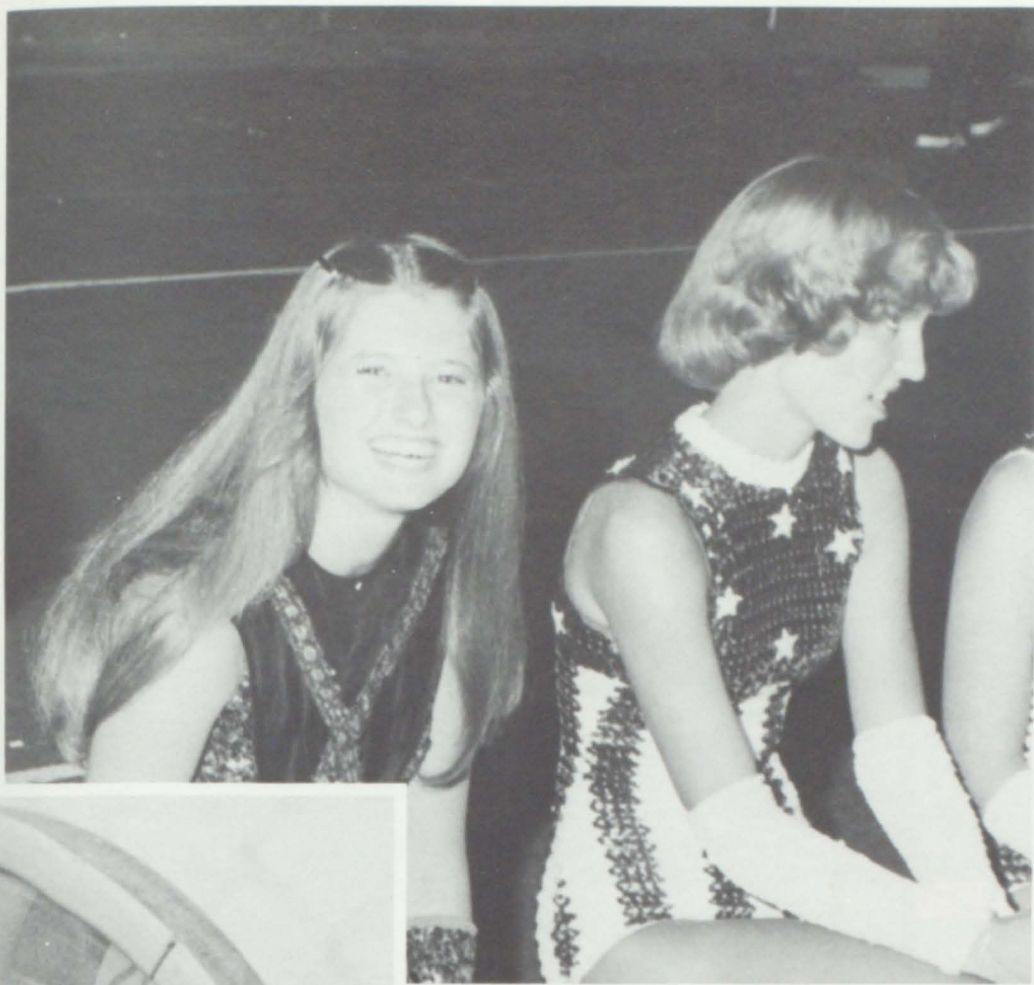

It's hard for me to let go of something or someone that completes me. Although the longing makes me painfully aware of beautiful memories. I choose to reach out again. The past need not consume us!

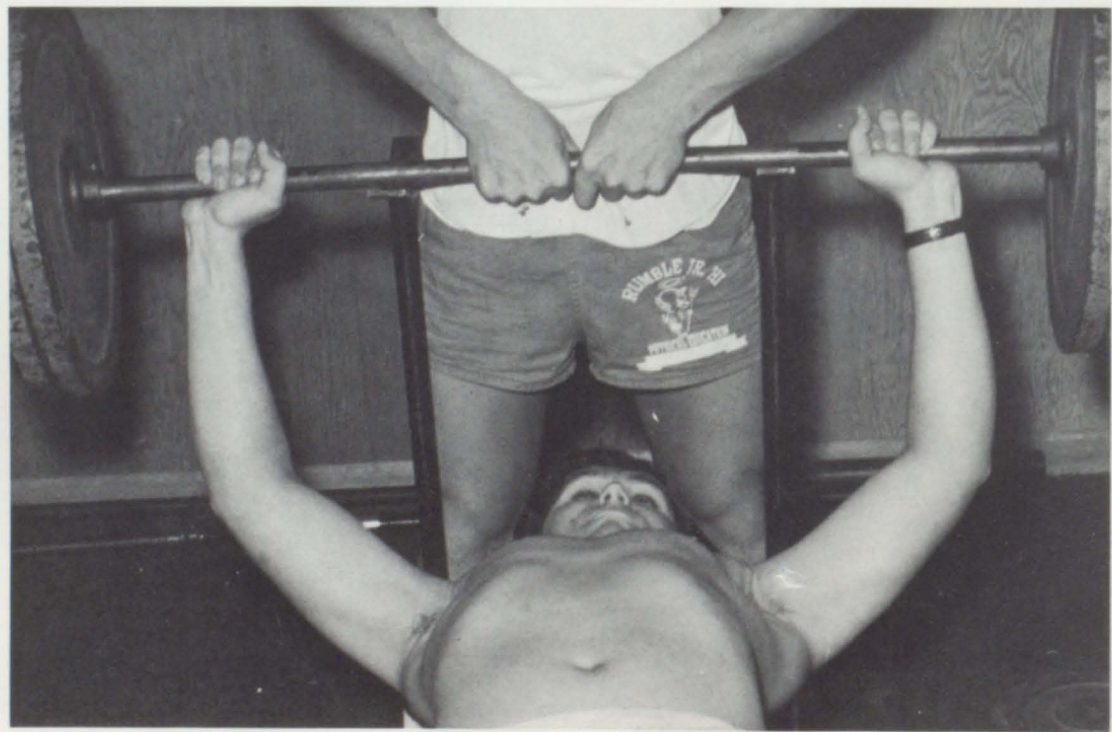

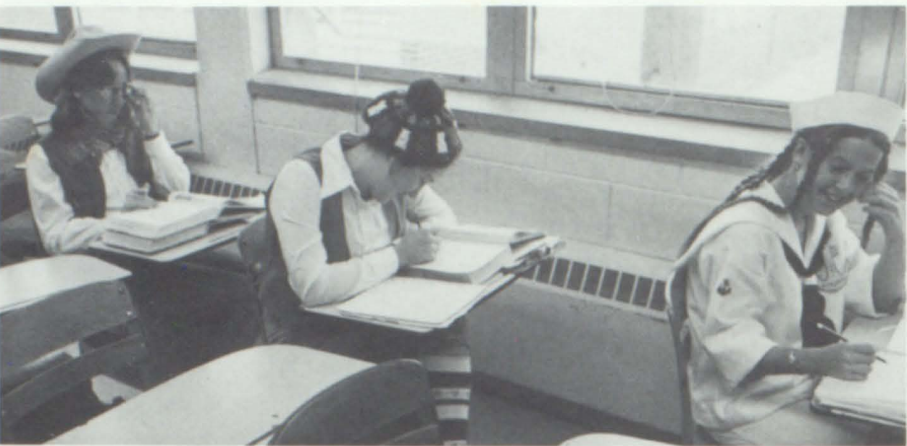

By choice, I have grown to see every person as being unique and of value.

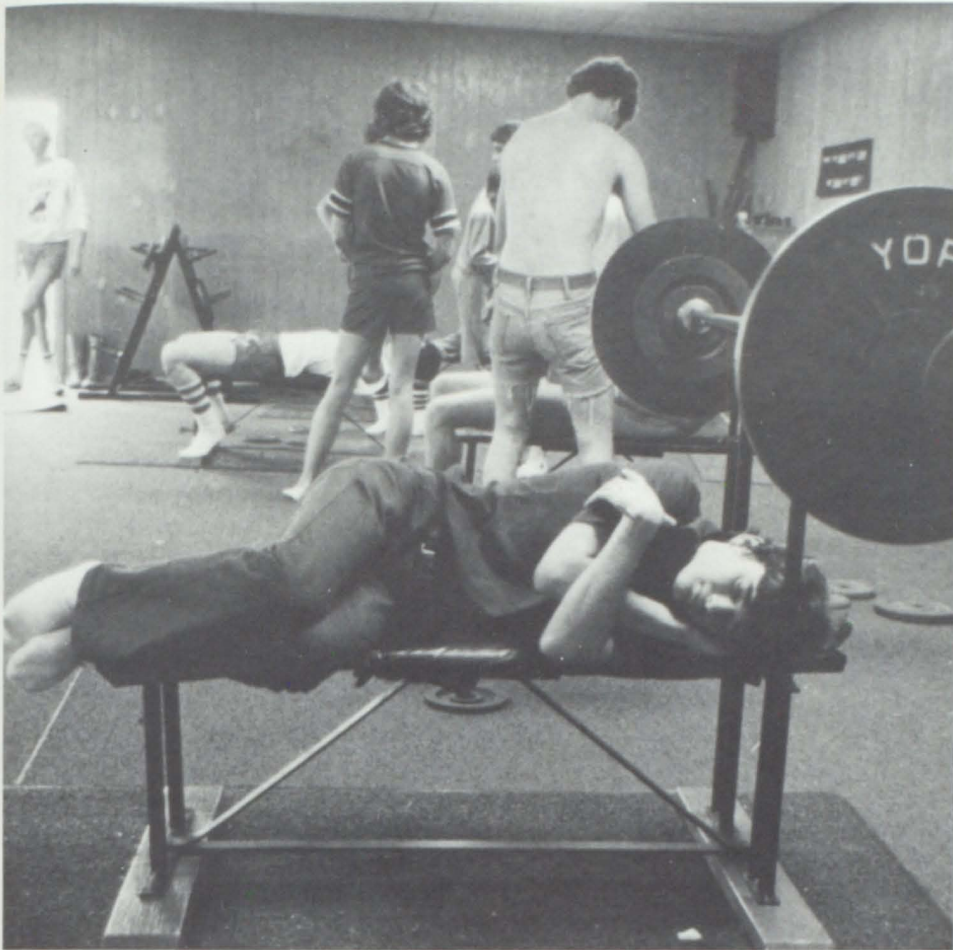

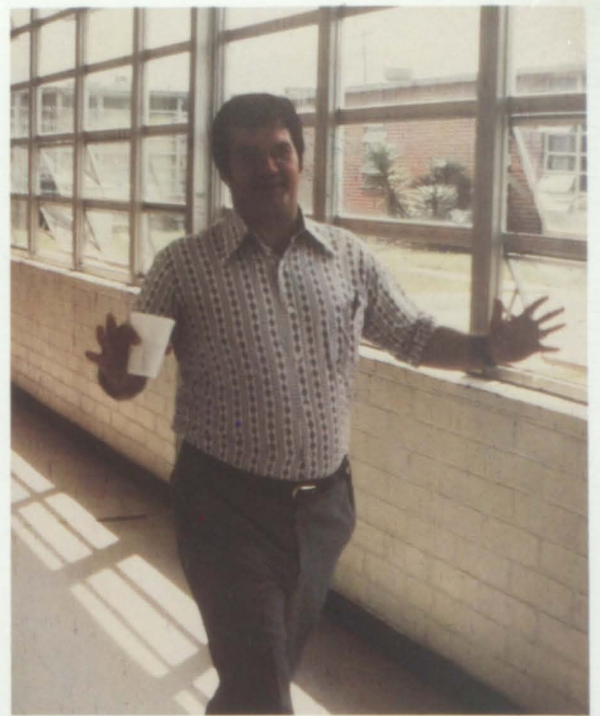

I believe the world is diminished when any person withholds positive support of the individual.

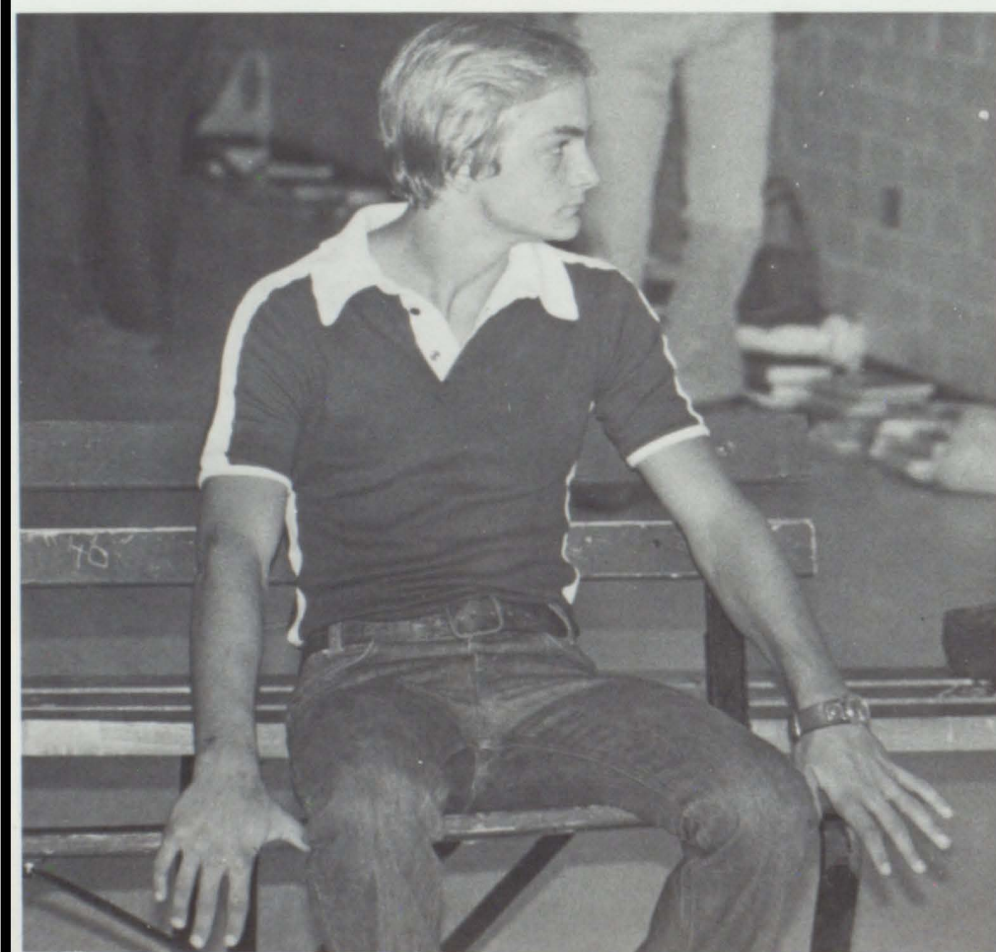

I do a lot of living in my head. But there are times when I get confused or overwhelmed or lonely. Then I come out and seek reflections from others.

"What are you going to be when you grow up?" Oh, wow! That question is a childhood directive that reveals we've lost our way—postpone your fulfillment, postpone your happiness, postpone your being. But life is not a goal. It is not an "I'll be happy when affair". Life is a journey in which each moment counts. To withhold a smile, a greeting, a touch, a song, a laugh, a tear, a kind word is to miss the purpose of the trip. Be! Now!

Life can be beautiful — —
if we care enough
about ourselves and others
Either we go forward,
or we go backward.
